LONDON, May 29.

Part of a Letter from Fort St. George, in the Eaſt-Indies, dated November 3, 1759.

TO what I wrote in a former Letter I have but little more to add, than to inform you of an Engagement Admiral Pocock has had with the French Fleet, conſiſting of ten Sail of the Line, and five Frigates and Store Ships, commanded by Monſieur d'Apche. Our Fleet got ſo near them, that they could not avoid coming to an Engagement, and accordingly a ſharp Action enſued, and continued with great Fury on both Sides upwards of two Hours, when it ended much in the ſame Manner as the former ones; that is, the French fought as long as they liked it, and then ran away. Unfortunately two of our Capital Ships, the Sunderland and Weymouth, could not get into the Line, by the Wind falling ſhort; ſo that ſeven Ships only of ours were oppoſed to eleven of the French; of Courſe, by ſo ſuperior a Fire, they ſuffered greatly, and were ſo ſhattered they could not purſue the Enemy, who all got into Pondicherry.

The Tyger, Newcaſtle and Saliſbury, have ſuffered moſt; the firſt was quite diſabled, her Mizen-maſt and Main-top-maſt being ſhot away; and ſcarcely a Rope or Sail left ſtanding in either. Capt. Mitchell, of the Newcaſtle, and one of the Lieutenants of the Tyger, and Capt. Gore of the Marines, are the principal Perſons among the Slain. Admiral Stevens was ſlightly wounded in the Breaſt, as are likewiſe the Captains of the Cumberland and Tyger; and we reckon we have had full 500 Men killed and wounded; and by Accounts we have had from pretty good Authority, the French had upwards of 1000 killed and wounded.

We have lately had a ſharp Skirmiſh with the French in the Field; but it did not ſucceed ſo well as we could wiſh; for, having attacked a conſiderable Party of the French in a ſtrong Poſt, we were repulſed with Loſs. However, it is thought the Enemy loſt as many Men as we, and that there were about 200 killed, wounded and taken.

P. S. I have further to tell you, that the French Admiral d'Apche was ſhot through the Leg in the Engagement, and two or three of their Captains killed.

Yeſterday was delivered at the Bank, from the Mint-Office, 70,000 l. in new Guineas, of the Coinage of 1760.

Liſt of Engliſh Men of War in Quiberon Bay, May 2.

Namur, Royal William, ——, of 90 Guns. Foudroyant, ——, of 84. Hero, Shrewſbury, Warſpite, Hercules, Chicheſter, Torbay, Burford, of 74. Otford, of 70. Dorſetſhire, Edgar, of 64. Montague, Anſon, Monmouth, Nottingham, St. Florentine, ——, of 60. Portland, of 50. Frigates, Venus, Coventry, of 36. Juno, of 34. Adventure, of 32. Greyhound, of 24. A Sloop, of 14 Guns.

The preſent Diſpoſition of the Fleet at Quiberon Bay, ſerves a double Purpoſe; for whilſt the Admiral lies off the River Vannes, blocking up 150 Sail of Tranſports, and two Frigates; about four Leagues to the Eaſtward are four Sail of the Line, and two Frigates of the Enemy's, blocked up in the Villaine, by the Burford, Monmouth, Nottingham, and St. Florentine.

The French, in a State of Deſperation, having given over all Thoughts of retrieving their ſhattered Glory and Credit by their Marine, depending ſolely upon the Succeſs of their Arms in Germany, has induced our worthy Miniſtry to fix their Attention upon the ſame Object; for which Reaſon three Battalions of the Guards, and ſome marching Regiments, were ready to march for Embarkation at an Hour's Warning, and only wait for Advice from Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, whether he ſhall ſtand in Need thereof or not.

Three Troops of Horſe are under Orders for marching to embark on board the Expedition Fleet.

The Shrewſbury, Capt. Palliſor, of 74 Guns; the Pallas, Capt. Clements, of 36, the Argo, Capt. Tinker, of 28, and the Niger, Capt. Bentinck, of 32; fell in with a French Ship of 74 Guns, with three Ships under her Convoy, laden with Arms, Stores, &c. for Martinico.—The Argo took and has brought in one of the Storeſhips, the Shrewſbury, Pallas, and Niger, chaſed the Man of War and other Storeſhips, and came up with them faſt; the Argo loſt Sight of them in the Night, but heard a great Firing from that Quarter the next Morning.

A Letter from Portſmouth, dated the 21ſt Inſt. adviſes, that the French Eaſt Indiaman, taken by the Pallas Man of War, was juſt arrived in that Port.

We hear that the King of Pruſſia's Army is at leaſt 200,000, and very advantageouſly poſted; that he intends to act entirely upon the Defenſive, and is in no Doubt of making a good Campaign.

On the 19th Inſt. arrived at Plymouth from a Cruize, his Majeſty's Ship Venus, Capt. Thomas Harriſon, who has taken and brought in with him the St. Joſeph de N. S. de Roſoſa, from the Groyne, bound to Bourdeaux: She is a Ship of about 500 Tons, but is not above Half laden, which conſiſts of Sugar and Coffee, Part of the Cargoes of ſeveral French Ships, which were tranſhipped on board her at the ſaid Port: She had a Spaniſh Paſs and Papers, and her French Papers were found out by the Information of the Cabin-Boy, which were in the Mate's Breeches, by which the Ship and Cargo appear to be French Property.

Likewiſe the Argo Frigate has taken and ſent in there, the Providence, of and from Breſt, bound to St. Domingo, loaded with Wine, Brandy and Bale Goods: The Sailors that came in this Prize report, that they left the Pallas and Niger Frigates engaged with a French 74 Gun Ship which they take to be Homeward-bound from the Weſt-Indies: The Shrewſbury was in Sight, and making all the Sail poſſible ſhe could to get up to the Frigates Aſſiſtance.

The Pallas, mentioned to have been ſeen engaged with a French Ship of 74 Guns, appears to be a Fact, ſhe being arrived at Portſmouth. She had five Men killed and nineteen wounded in the Engagement; but having received conſiderable Damage, ſhe was obliged to ſhorten Sail to ſtop her Leaks, and make for this Port. She left the Shrewſbury and Niger in Chaſe of her.

May 22. This Day ſeveral Bills received the Royal Aſſent, by Virtue of a Commiſſion from his Majeſty, when the Lord Preſident delivered a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, thanking them for their chearful and unanimous Grants for the Year 1760, which amounts to 15,852,706 l. 9 s. 9 d.

We hear that ſeveral Merchants and Under Writers of this City, on Account of the great Loſſes which they have already ſuſtained by the Enemy's taking their Ships, are going to join the Owners of Privateers in their intended Petition to the Government for Relief; and to pray a Bounty for Cruizers to be fitted out by them to protect their Trade, and annoy the Enemy.

Several large Merchant Ships, now fitting out in this and other Ports, for different Parts, will ſail with Letters of Marque.

Portſmouth, May 23. His Majeſty's Ship Warſpite, Capt. Bentley, arrived from the Bay, has brought in a Privateer Schooner of 14 Guns, and 80 Men. She was taken two or three Days before they left the Bay.

Kenſington, May 27. This Day his Excellency the Conde de Fuentes, Ambaſſador Extraordinary, and Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Majeſty, to preſent his Credential Letters.

To which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle (on Account of the Indiſpoſition of the Right Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State) and conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

As likewiſe had the Marquis d'Abreu, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain, to take his Leave.

BOSTON, Auguſt 4.

Wedneſday Morning Capt. Dean arrived here from Halifax, which Place he left the Saturday before: We have Advice, That on the 21ſt of July arrived there the Repulſe Man of War, of 32 Guns, from the Bay Chaleurs, and brought in the Crews of ſeveral Veſſels which had been taken by the French,

French, particularly, of the Auguſtus, Barnabas Velman, from New-London, but laſt from Louiſburg; Banks, from New-York; Cuſhing from Caſco-Bay; Swinney and Maxwell, from Halifax, bound up the River, which Veſſels, on the 16th of May laſt, off of Gaſpee-Bay, happened to fall in with a French Frigate, and two large Store-ſhips, from Bourdeaux, in France, who took them all, and carried them into Bay Chaleurs. Some of the Men that were taken arrived here in Captain Dean, and inform, That the French had fitted out the Auguſtus as a Privateer, but was taken by one of the five Men of War, which ſailed from Louiſburg in Queſt of theſe Ships, as we have already given an Account: That the French having before left her, by ſome Papers found on board, they got Intelligence where the French Ships were, and accordingly purſued them; when the Engliſh Men of War appeared in the Bay, the French ran their Ships into ſhoal Water, where they were defended by three or four Batteries, which they had before erected, and planted a Number of Guns taken from on board their Ships; and only the Repulſe and Scarborough being able to come near enough to engage, they continued the Attack three Days, when the Enemy abandoned their Works, and ſet two of their Ships on Fire and burnt them; and moſt of their Prizes they either burnt or ſunk: Then they put the Engliſh Priſoners, whom they ſtripped and bound, in Irons, on board the other Ship, which they ran aſhore at ſome farther Diſtance, and left them: That ſoon after they were left, they found Means to unbind themſelves, and one of the Men ſwam three or four Miles to our Ships, and informing of their Situation and Circumſtances, nine Boats were mann'd out, who went to their Relief, and brought them all away, having ſet the Ship on Fire, and burnt her. They ſay ſhe had a great Quantity of Proviſions and other Stores on board. The Repulſe received conſiderable Damage in her Hull, Sails, Rigging, &c. and was put into Halifax to refit.

Extract of a Letter from a Captain of one of his Majeſty's Ships of War, dated Halifax, July 23, 1760.

"I wrote you of my being ordered to cruize for the Protection of the Trade off Canſo, ſince which I received Orders from Captain Byron, who with a ſmall Squadron, on Information of ſome Troops, &c. being in Chaleurs Bay, ſailed immediately in Queſt of them; where we found the Machault of 30 Guns, the Bienfaiſant, and Marquis Maloze, Ships of near 700 Tons Burden, with about 40 Sail of Veſſels of leſſer Note. The whole are, except a few Shallops, entirely deſtroyed. And as La Blanc's Privateers are among them, I make no Doubt but the Veſſels may paſs with Security. More particularly ſo, as the Prince of Orange, and Rocheſter, with 2 or 3 armed Sloops and Schooners, are cruizing off of Gaſpee. As I have been rather roughly handled, I am refitting here, when I ſhall proceed to endeavour an entire demoliſhing every Hole the French and Canadians can put their Heads in. I received much Joy in reſcuing the Engliſh Priſoners to the Number of Fifty-eight. Our Loſs is inconſiderable. My Maſter wounded, with about ten more, one of Mr. Byron's Lieutenants and ſix or ſeven killed."

We hear further, that on the Arrival of the French Frigate and Store-ſhips at Chaleurs, the Commander ſent an Expreſs over Land to Montreal, with an Account of their Arrival in the Bay of Chaleurs.

That upon the Return of the Expreſs, which was in 22 Days, it was ſaid Orders were brought for them to put out from thence, to proceed and forward their Stores to the Miſſiſſippi: Accordingly they began to get in Readineſs: But a great Part of their Ammunition, and other Stores being landed, the Engliſh Ships appeared before they could re-ſhip them, and prevented their Eſcape. It is thought the Stores landed can be of no Service to the Troops at Montreal, as it was impracticable to convey them thither, above 500 Miles, and through a mountainous Wilderneſs.

Theſe Veſſels ſailed from France, with three other Store-ſhips, and bound to the Relief of the French above Quebec, but the other three were taken, ſoon after they left Port, by ſome of Admiral Boſcawen's cruizing Ships; and that upon hearing of the Engliſh Ships having got to Quebec, they put into this Bay, and landed 300 Regular Troops, commanded by Major Lappeneau, a young French Gentleman, who was well known in this Town, and at Newbury, juſt before the preſent War broke out; it is ſaid he loſt one of his Legs in defending the Batteries erected againſt our Ships.

We hear, that the French on board the Frigate, and the other Veſſels, appeared very much out of Humour, upon hearing of the Engliſh Ships getting up the River before them. It was ſuſpected, that the Engliſh Priſoners, taken in the above ſix Veſſels, conſiſting of 59 Men, Women and Children, were put on board the Storeſhip to be deſtroyed.

The Repulſe Man of War ſpoke with two or three others that were cruizing in the River, and had lately come down from Quebec, who informed that they were uneaſy in the City about the Traders, 28 of which they had heard were in the River, and but four or five got up.—But there is no Advice of any others being taken, beſides the ſix above-mentioned, which were accidentally met with by the Veſſels from France.

The Report in Town of 31 of our Proviſion Veſſels being taken, aroſe from there being ſuch a Number of Veſſels deſtroyed by our Ships in the Bay of Chaleurs, ſome of which had been there many Months, and ſome were the French Fiſhing-Veſſels.

Capt. Bradford is arrived at Portſmouth, in ſix Days from Louiſburg, and informs, That on the 20th ult. in the Gutt of Canſo, he had like to have been boarded by a French Pettiaugre, which he fired at and beat off ſundry Times.—The 21ſt ult. ſailed from Louiſburg, for Quebec, the Race-horſe, and 17 Sail, with Stores, Proviſions, &c. The 22d ſailed for Halifax 9 Sail, with Cannon and Stores for that Place. Captain Dorrington, from Boſton, was met with by the Repulſe, off Canſo.

A Letter from Montego Bay, dated July 5th, mentions, that the Rebellion of the Negroes in the Iſland of Jamaica, had intirely ſubſided.

Saturday laſt, about One o'Clock, came to Town by Land from Providence, his Excellency FRANCIS BERNARD, Eſq; with his Majeſty's Royal Commiſſion to be Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay; as alſo a Commiſſion from the Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty, to be Vice-Admiral of the ſame, &c. His Excellency embarked from his late Government of New-Jerſey, on board the Maſſachuſetts armed Sloop laſt Tueſday, and arrived at Rhode-Iſland on Wedneſday Evening, and the next Morning proceeded from thence to Providence, in a Paſſage Boat provided for that Purpoſe, accompanied by the Honourable Mr. Secretary Oliver, who waited at Rhode-Iſland to attend him; from Providence he ſat out on Friday Afternoon, and lodged at Wrentham that Night, and from thence ſat out early next Morning, eſcorted by a Party of Horſe Guards, detached thither for that Purpoſe, and was met at Dedham by the Remainder of the Troop, and ſeveral of his Majeſty's Council, and on the Road from thence by a great Number of Gentlemen from Town in their Coaches and Chariots, and proceeded to the Province Houſe (where the Company of Cadets was drawn up) and received the Congratulations of a Number of Gentlemen, who had repaired thither on this Occaſion; from thence his Excellency walked in Proceſſion to the Court-Houſe, being eſcorted thither by the Company of Cadets. The Regiment of Militia in this Town being under Arms, and drawn up in the main Street, his Excellency received the Compliments of the Officers, by their paying the ſtanding Salute as he paſſed by; the Streets and Windows of the Houſes, &c. were crowded with Spectators on this Occaſion. His Majeſty's Commiſſion to his Excellency, as alſo that from the Lords of the Admiralty, were opened, and publicly read in the Council Chamber, and the uſual Oaths were adminiſtred by his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor. After which he was congratulated by the Council, and a great Number of Gentlemen there preſent, which was followed by three Vollies from the Militia, &c. as alſo a Diſcharge from the Guns at Caſtle-William, and the Batteries in this Town and Charles-Town, and from the Ships in the Harbour; after which his Excellency, with the Gentlemen of the Council, a Number of Officers, and other Gentlemen, were entertained with an elegant Dinner, provided at Faneuil-Hall for that Purpoſe.

Our laſt Advices from Fort Ontario, on Lake Ontario, arrived here on Monday laſt in but 9 Days from Oſwego, they are as follow, That General Amherſt with about 5000 Troops was preparing to go from thence, and that the Remainder of the Troops were expected at the Lake in a few Days. They, with the Stores, having been much retarded, by the Want of a Sufficiency of Water in the River, there having been no Rains. That Commodore Loring was out on a Cruize in the Lake, with two fine Snows, one of 28 Guns, and the other of 20 Guns. That after he ſailed, a French Snow and a Brig of 18 Guns each, appeared in Sight of the Fort, juſt as 8 Boats had put off deeply loaded with Stores for Niagara, and which narrowly eſcaped falling into their Hands; but they got ſafe to the Place they were deſigned for.

By a Letter from Oſwego, dated July 19, we have Advice, That 4 Battalions of Regulars, and 3 of Provincials, were encamped near the Garriſon; and that 3 Battalions of Regulars, with the Connecticut and New-Jerſey Regiments, would join them in a few Days: Alſo, That Sir William Johnſon, with a large Body of Indians, at leaſt a Thouſand, ſome ſay Fifteen Hundred, were but a few Miles from the Fort, and on their Way thither, to join our Army: That the Regulars and Provincials appeared to be a fine Body of Troops, and all in high Spirits.

We hear from Marblehead, that John Caſwall, Maſter of a Fiſhing Schooner, belonging to that Place, brought in there laſt Monday, a Boat, which he took up the Friday before on Brown's Bank: In the Boat was one Man alive, and two or three dead Bodies: They took the live Man on board the Schooner, who, after being refreſhed, and gaining a little Strength, informed them, that he had belonged to a Brigantine, Arthur Cathern, Maſter, from New-York, bound to Antigua, with Flour, Bread, &c. but 4 Days after they left Port, the Brig ſprung a Leak, and the Water came in ſo faſt, the People, conſiſting of the Maſter and 17 Men, had but juſt Time to get into the Boat, without any Proviſions: A few Days after they ſaw a Sloop, and made Signals, but were not diſcerned by her; being without Suſtenance ſeveral of them ſoon died, which were thrown overboard by the others, till at length they all died but this Man, whoſe Name is Thomas Purnall; the two laſt who died was the Captain and Boy, but Purnall being very weak, he was not able to throw them over. It was 23 Days from the Brig's foundering to the Time the Fiſherman met with the Boat. What the poor People ſubſiſted on, if it can be called Subſiſtence, was the Barnicles and Stuff which gathered on the Outſide of the Boat.

The young Man ſince he has gathered more Strength ſays the Brig was bound to Louiſburg and the River.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 7.

Tueſday, 5th of Auguſt, at 10 o'Clock in the Morning, arrived off of Sandy-Hook, the Ship Minehead, Captain Forreſt, in eight Weeks from Liſbon, with Salt. The Ship of War lying in that Road ſent a Boat to demand her Men; but on the Refuſal of the Ship's Company (who had ſeized all the Small-Arms, and confined the Captain and Officers, and were determined not to ſurrender till the laſt Extremity) Signals from the Long-boat were made for more Aſſiſtance; ſoon after which three more Boats were manned, and came under the Minehead's Stern, ſometimes diſcharging Small-Arms, and demanding Admittance, but were ſtill refuſed by the Men, who had then the ſole Command of the Ship; which the Officers in the Boats knew, as they were informed of it ſeveral Times, both by the Maſter from his Cabbin, and the Pilot from the Deck: Notwithſtanding, the Ship continued Firing Grape-ſhot, Langrage, Twelve-pounders, &c. many of which lodged in her Wails, went through her Bowſprit, and Main-top-maſt, damaged her Sails conſiderably, killed one Man, and wounded another.

Laſt Week a Negro Man belonging to Mr. Gamble in this City, having been detected in ſtealing a ſmall Quantity of Rum from his Maſter, was threatened with Correction; this he ſeemed to reſent moſt maliciouſly, having before been always treated with great Kindneſs, and being obſerved by a Woman in the Family to ſharpen a Knife, ſhe aſked him, what he was going to do with it, he anſwered to kill his Maſter, this he probably intended, and might have accompliſhed, but his Maſter being from Home, and not returning till his Patience in waiting for him was exhauſted, he went into the Garret, and hanged himſelf with a Handkerchief, where he was found the next Morning.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 14.

On Monday laſt Captain Rench arrived here, in Twenty Days Paſſage, from Quebec. By him, and from ſome private Letters, we learn as follows, viz. That a Week before he ſailed, General Murray, with 2000 Troops, in about 40 Sail of Tranſports left Quebec for Montreal, having likewiſe with him a 40 Gun Ship, a Frigate, and a Sloop of War, with ſeveral floating Batteries, ſome of which mounted 24 Pounders: That about 10 Leagues up the River, he landed his Men, and took, after a good Deal of Oppoſition from the Enemy, a 16 Gun Battery, which is ſaid to be the only Obſtruction of that Kind he has to meet with in going up: That it was reported a French Army (about 10,000 Men) deſigned to give General Amherſt Battle, to hinder his joining General Murray: That Captain Rench, in coming down the River, met the Louiſburg Garriſon (two Battalions) going up to Quebec, about 20 Leagues above Gaſpee: That there was no Trade allowed at Quebec with the Inhabitants, who are ſaid to be in great Want of Proviſions, but that there was a Sort of Market kept without the Walls, at which the Soldiers only were ſuffered to exchange their ſalt Proviſions for Greens, Milk, &c. brought there by the Canadians: That an Expreſs of Rangers had arrived from General Amherſt, who were 20 Days from Crown-Point; but in croſſing the River St. Francis on a Raft, they were carried down the Falls, by which they loſt their Packet, and all their Arms; ſo that General Murray could receive but little Information from them: That one of our Ships of War, above Quebec, had received ſome Damage from ſome of the French floating Batteries, and loſt ſome Men: That a Friend Indian came in from Trois Rivieres, and ſaid, the French told him, that Major Rogers had burnt two Villages on the Iſland Jeſus, within five Leagues of Montreal: And that our Troops went off in high Spirits, the Officers, it is ſaid, ſtriving and petitioning for Leave to go on the Expedition.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, July 23, 1760.

"By Advices from London to the Fifth of June, nothing intereſting had happened in Germany; but Prince Ferdinand was in full March towards the French, and, it was believed, would attack them, before they were quite ready for the Field. Pruſſia ſeems to be cautiouſly on the Defenſive. The Expedition Fleet is haſtened and countermanded alternately. The Foudroyant, and ſome other large Ships, have lately been ſent hither in a very private Manner, and we have a much larger Squadron than common Occaſions can poſſibly require; but we have not yet any other Appearances of an Expedition, though it is certain they expect one at Martinico. Commodore Douglas has hitherto kept the Ships pretty much at Sea, yet that does not prevent the French Privateers from conducting moſt of the Northward Men to Martinico."

Our Advices from Oſwego are of the Third Inſtant, when every Thing was ready to proceed, the General waiting only for the 46th and Colonel Schuyler's Regiment, who were daily expected, having left Fort Stanwix the 28th ult. It is ſaid General Amherſt will have at leaſt 6 or 700 Warriors of our own Indians with him; and that there is a Proſpect of the Oſwegatchies joining him.

ANNAPOLIS, Auguſt 21.

Tueſday laſt his Excellency our Governor returned to Town, in good Health, having been abſent from us upwards of Three Months on Account of the Small-Pox.

On the Sixth Inſtant Died in Kent County, Aged 48 Years, ALEXANDER WILLIAMSON, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives for that County, and once Speaker of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly; a Gentleman of a virtuous and exemplary Life, and who has left a truly amiable Character, no Man in his County having their more general Eſteem. He had met with many and various Trials and Afflictions, by the Death of near and dear Relatives, which he always bore with a Chriſtian Reſignation and Manly Fortitude; 'til a Week before his Death, his eldeſt Son, Mr. Alexander Williamſon, junior, a very hopeful and promiſing young Gentleman, being cut off, after a few Days Illneſs, it ſo much affected and depreſſed his Spirits, that in deſpite of all his wonted Reſolution, he Died of Grief.

One Day laſt Week, a Welſh Servant Man on Kent-Iſland, attempting to ſwim after a Canoe, which went a-drift, was Drowned.

Laſt Saturday a melancholly Accident happen'd, at a petty Horſe-Race near Magothy River, where William Rodwell, and Jonas Dawſon, who before had had ſome Bickerings about their Skill in Dancing a Jigg, meeting together, Rodwell challeng'd Dawſon to try then who was the beſt Man, as he term'd it, by Boxing; an odd criterion to determine Goodneſs! and at it they went; but after a few Blows, Dawſon own'd he had enough, or that his Antagoniſt was the beſt Man, When their Broughtonian exerciſe was over, they wath'd, ſhook Hands, and drank as Friends; but a few Minutes after Dawſon dropp'd down Dead, and is ſuppos'd to have got his Death from a Blow he receiv'd on his Left Side. The other immediately ſurrendered himſelf to Juſtice. By this unhappy Affair, a poor Widow and five ſmall Children are left without any Support, and by far the beſt Man of the Two loſt to the Community.

A few Weeks ago, on a Moon-Light Evening, an odd Affair, which had like to have prov'd very Tragical, happen'd in Charles County; one Burrows, a very imprudent young Man, (to ſay no worſe of him) with another young Fellow, loaded a Gun with mix'd Shot, and went ſome Miles to the Houſe of one John Cookſey, in order to ſhoot Cookſey's Dog, from whom he had receiv'd ſome Affront; when they came to the Houſe, the whole Family ſitting out by the Door, Burrows fired his Gun, but either from his being a bad Marksman, or ſomething elſe, he miſs'd the Dog, but ſhot Mrs. Cookſey in the Foot; ſo that ſhe is like to be a Cripple, three Shot went into an Infant in her Arms, whoſe Life was for ſome Time deſpair'd of, and three other Children were wounded, the Man of the Houſe narrowly eſcaping, one Shot graſing his Throat. It is to be hop'd that Mr. Blunderbuſs, whenever he attempts to ſhoot a Dog again, will get a Gun that will not Scatter ſo much, or take better Aim.

☞ This Town is now clear of the SMALL-POX.

ALL Gentlemen of this Province, into whoſe Hands any Money has been paid, for the Relief of thoſe unhappy People who ſuffered by the Fire, which broke out the 20th of March laſt at Boſton, are deſired to remit the ſame to the Commiſſioners of the Loan-Office; and ſuch of the Miniſters of the Goſpel, as have not yet return'd the BRIEFS, which were ſent to them, are deſired to ſend the ſame as ſoon as poſſible to his Excellency, or to JOHN ROSS Clerk of the Council.

Baltimore-Town, Auguſt 14, 1760.

THIS is to forewarn all Perſons from Truſting Roſe Wilſon, my Wife, on my Account, for I will not Pay any Debt of her Contracting after the Date of this Advertiſement.

Virginia, August 8, 1760.

RAN away from the Subscriber, about the 15th of June last, a likely well-made Virginia born Negro Fellow, named Ned (alias Edward Kello) formerly belonging to Col. Theodorick Bland of Prince-George County, and by him sold to Mr. Richard Hanson of Petersburg, Merchant; is about five Feet eight Inches high, near 40 Years of Age, sensible, smooth-tongued, talkative, and apt to deceive by telling plausible Stories; has been bred up in an House, is a complete Waiter, shaves and dresses a Wig pretty well; had with him when he went away a Great-Coat, Osnabrigs Shirts and Breeches. Any Person that will apprehend him, and cause him to be conveyed to me, or to Mr. William Eaton in Dinwiddie County, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, if taken in this Government; if in any other, Ten Pounds, beside what the Law allows. And as it is supposed he will change his Name, and endeavour to escape out of the Country on board some Vessel, I would request all Masters to be careful not to receive him on board; and in Case he should offer to Ship himself or go Passenger on board any Vessel, that the Captain will cause him to be secured and sent before the next Justice of the Peace, and the Person performing such Service shall be rewarded in Manner afore-mentioned. Whoever shall presume to carry the said Slave out of the Country, may expect to be prosecuted with the utmost Rigour.

ROBERT JONES, junior.

Frederick-Town, August 19, 1760.

WHEREAS the Subscriber sign'd and seal'd a Bond, upwards of six Years ago, for Eighty Pounds, payable to Daniel Davis of Frederick-Town, Black-smith; which Sum was to be paid to the said Davis on his making over, by a good firm Deed of Sale, 200 Acres of Land, with some Improvements thereon, to the Subscriber; but the said Davis not being able to make over the same, This is to forewarn all Persons from taking any Assignment of the said Bond, for as it is unjust that it should be paid, the Subscriber will not pay one Farthing of it. JOHN WIGHEL.

August 8th, 1760.

WHEREAS Mr. Joseph Smith, Iron-Master, in Baltimore County, did, on the 15th Day of September, 1759, mortgage unto the Subscriber Thirty-two Negroes, for sundry good Causes mentioned in the Instrument of Writing; and whereas the Subscriber, upon the Credit of the said Mortgage, and on the Request of the said Smith, advanced sundry Sums of Money & Goods, of which a Ballance is still due unto the Subscriber of the full and just Sum of Eight Hundred and Seventy-two Pounds Five Shillings Current Money. Any Person that will pay and discharge the same, may have an Assignment of the said Mortgage: The Time of it's Expiration will be the first Day of September ensuing the Date hereof. Among the said Negroes there are about Eighteen or Twenty Tradesmen, viz. Smiths, Forgemen, Colliers, Carpenters, &c. such as may be serviceable to any Iron-Master.

EDWARD NORWOOD.

N. B. The said Smith has reported, that the said Norwood will not settle Accounts with him, which is entirely false, as he is always ready and willing to lay his Books before Iron-Masters, and to settle the same.
